

Adam Rasul and Chris Daw QC Case Study

It is with great pleasure that I write this Testimonial regarding my Solicitor, ADAM RASUL. He and his colleague, CHRIS DAW QC, have been my represented legal team for the last two years defending my case. Through them and their excellent services my case was successfully defended, the conclusion of which was that no charges were made against me.

As my Solicitor, Adam was at all times available for conversation whether it was day or night, week- day or week- end. In so doing, he was always most courteous, positive, attentive, efficient and thoroughly professional. In addition, he listened with patience all that I wanted to relay to him and subsequently reacted with a fastidiousness and accuracy that was very clear to see. His precision to detail and incisiveness were outstanding features and the measured confidence he exuded became an inspiration to me allowing me to feel strongly throughout that my case was in the utmost professional hands and that I was being protected by an immovable citadel. The loyalty I perceived was fierce.

The enthusiasm of the team together with their skilled and knowledgable acumen and experience in their spheres of the legal profession was apparent at all times; nothing was too much trouble for them and I felt as though I was in the safest hands. Their objectivity and analytical minds allowed them to 'cut to the chase' without my necessarily knowing that they were doing so. Nothing was too much trouble and their availability either day or night was impressive and most reassuring.

Their diligence and energy were apparent for all to see and at the conclusion of meetings a focussed and logical precis would be given of all matters discussed and problems ventilated. Their clarity was enlightening.

I learnt throughout this time that Adam and Chris were being exceedingly discerning in their thought processes, at all times retaining the ability to keep uppermost what the salient factors that had to be kept to the fore were, and, unknown to me, what part of my ventilation and abreaction to keep below the surface in readiness for another day. Their methodical skill in so doing was quite astonishing as I look back on the last two years.

On a personal level, I would like to say how personable my legal team were, how caring they were and how their demeanour and professional good manners were most evident. I soon began to feel very much part of the team, led and directed by Adam and Chris, and I can sincerely say that I never felt in any doubt as to what the end result would be, such was the excellent and professionally embracing environment they brought to my case especially in the dedicated and sustained way it was handled, ultimately heralding the eventual success through their good services.

I feel most fortunate to have been able to have Adam and Chris as my Solicitor and Counsel and could not have wished for a better team. I am proud to call them my friends. I have no hesitation whatsoever in warmly recommending them without reservation and to say that I would request their sterling services again without a moment's thought if I were to be in need again.
